“Little Prelude and Fugue”

Domenico Zipoli

Greeting

Call to Worship †§

L: The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases;

P: and great is God’s faithfulness!

L: The Lord brings new life to those who are weary,

P: and lifts up those who are weighed down.

L: God’s mercies are everlasting.

P: They are new every morning.

“We Are Called”

Prayer of Confession †§

Trusting you does not always come easy when each day we are faced with the ugliness of the world. We do not believe that love conquers fear. We are not convinced that power comes through weakness. We cannot conceive how you could heal us. Forgive our lack of faith, O God, and renew our trust in you, so we may become more faithful disciples of Jesus. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon §

L: God does not judge by human standards, but by Divine Love: in Jesus’ name, you are forgiven!

P: You are forgiven!

L: May the peace of Christ be with you!

P: And also with you!

“We Come to Hear Your Word”

The Service of the Word

Psalm 30

L: I will extol you, O Lord, for you have drawn me up, and did not let my foes rejoice over me.

P: O Lord my God, I cried to you for help, and you have healed me.

L: O Lord, you brought up my soul from Sheol, restored me to life from among those gone down to the Pit.

P: Sing praises to the Lord, O you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name.

L: For his anger is but for a moment; his favor is for a lifetime.

P: Weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning.

L: As for me, I said in my prosperity, "I shall never be moved."

P: By your favor, O Lord, you had established me as a strong mountain; you hid your face; I was dismayed.

L: To you, O Lord, I cried, and to the Lord I made supplication:

P: "What profit is there in my death, if I go down to the Pit? Will the dust praise you? Will it tell of your faithfulness?"

L: Hear, O Lord, and be gracious to me! O Lord, be my helper!"

P: You have turned my mourning into dancing; you have taken off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy, so that my soul may praise you and not be silent.

All: O Lord my God, I will give thanks to you forever.

Gospel

Mark 5:21–43

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet and begged him repeatedly, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live." So he went with him.

And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years. She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, for she said, "If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well." Immediately her hemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?" And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, 'Who touched me?' " He looked all around to see who had done it. But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease."

While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader's house to say, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?" But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe." He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. When he had entered, he said to them, "Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. He took her by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cum," which means, "Little girl, get up!" And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Sermon

Baptism

Welcome and Presentation

L: Members and friends in Christ, we gather to celebrate God's gift of grace in the baptism of Harrison Thomas Cartmill. To us a child is given!

P: Thanks be to God!

Address

- L: Jesus said: Unless we are born anew, we cannot see the reign of God; unless we are born of water and the Spirit, we cannot enter God's new order. Paul the apostle said: All of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into Christ's death. We were buried therefore with Christ by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead, to the glory of God, we too might walk in newness of life. The sacrament of baptism is an outward and visible sign of the grace of God. Inasmuch as the promise of the gospel is not only to us but also to our children, baptism with water and the Holy Spirit is the mark of their acceptance into the care of Christ's church, the sign and seal of their participation in God's forgiveness, and the beginning of their growth into full Christian faith and discipleship.
- P: This is the water of baptism. Out of this water, we rise with new life, forgiven of sin and one in Christ, members of Christ's body.

Questions

- L: Do you desire to have your child baptized into the Christian faith and family of Christ?

Parents:

We do.

- L: As parents and sponsors of this child, will you encourage him to renounce the powers of evil and to receive the freedom of new life in Christ?

Parents and Sponsors:

We will, with the help of God.

- L: Will you teach him that he may be led to profess Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior?

Parents and Sponsors:

We will, with the help of God.

- L: Do you promise, by the grace of God, to be Christ's disciples, to follow in the way of our Savior, to resist oppression and evil, to show love and justice, and to witness to the work and word of Jesus Christ as best you are able?

Parents and Sponsors:

We do, with the help of God.

- L: Do you promise according to the grace given you, to grow with Harrison in the Christian faith, to share with him the church's life—worship, the Lord's Supper, and fellowship? Do you promise to instruct him in the Christian faith, so that living in the covenant of baptism and in communion with Christ's church, he may lead a godly life until the day of Jesus Christ?

Parents and Sponsors:

We do, with the help of God.

- L: Do you promise, by the grace of God, to help Harrison be a faithful member of the church of Jesus Christ, by celebrating Christ's presence, by furthering Christ's mission in the world, and by offering the nurture of the Christian church so that he may affirm his baptism?

Parents and Sponsors:

We do, with the help of God.

- L: Jesus calls us to make disciples of all nations and to offer them the gift of grace in baptism. Will you who witness and celebrate this sacrament stand in Christian solidarity with Austin and Meghan, and nurture one another in the Christian faith and include Harrison with your love, support, and prayer?

Congregation:

We promise our love, support, and prayer.

Prayer of Baptism

L: The Lord be with you.

P: And also with you.

L: We thank you, God, for the gift of creation called forth by your saving Word. Before the world had shape and form, your Spirit moved over the waters. Out of the waters of the deep, you formed the firmament and brought forth the earth to sustain all life. In the time of Noah, you washed the earth with the waters of the flood, and your ark of salvation bore a new beginning. In the time of Moses, your people Israel passed through the Red Sea waters from slavery to freedom and crossed the flowing Jordan to enter the promised land. In the fullness of time, you sent Jesus Christ, who was nurtured in the waters of Mary's womb. Jesus was baptized by John in the water of the Jordan, became living water to a woman at the Samaritan well, washed the feet of the disciples, and sent them forth to baptize all the nations by water and the Holy Spirit. Gracious God, bless this water. By your Holy Spirit save those who confess the name of Jesus Christ that sin may have no power over them. Create new life in Harrison who will be baptized this day that he may rise in Christ. Glory to you, Eternal God, the one who was, and is, and shall always be, world without end. Amen.

Harrison Thomas Cartmill, I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, one God, Mother of us all. The Holy Spirit be upon you, Harrison, child of God, disciple of Christ, member of the church.

Prayer for the Baptized

L: We give you thanks, O Holy One, mother and father of all the faithful, for this your child and for the grace acknowledged here today in water and the Holy Spirit. Embrace us all as sons and daughters of faith in the one household of your love. Grant us grace to receive, nurture, and befriend this new member of the body of Christ.

P: Give Harrison strength for life's journey, courage in times of trouble, the joy of faith, the freedom of love, and the hope of new life; through Jesus Christ who makes us one. Amen.

Praise God all creatures here below

Praise God above ye heavenly host

Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer of Dedication of Gifts and Self †§

Generous God, from you we have received, and now we bring these offerings to you. Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts and upon our lives that together we may bring healing and hope to the world. Amen.

Joys and Concerns

Prayers of the People

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Spiritual Care Package

Question for Reflection

In this week's readings, various people bring their suffering to God, through lament and the search for healing. How does Christ enable you—and how might you enable others—to be honest with God in doubt and pain?

Household Prayer: Morning

By your grace I arise from my bed this morning, Lord; by the power of your Spirit I draw my breath. As the dawn brightens into day, enlighten my mind with your truth and open my heart to all those I meet, that I might reflect the light of Jesus Christ, in whose name I give thanks and praise. Amen.

Household Prayer: Evening

As the night deepens, Lord, I give myself to your care. For the ways you enabled me to live faithfully today, thank you. For the ways I failed to follow Christ, forgive me. And if I do not awaken in the morning, receive me into your everlasting arms. Amen.

God is still speaking,
